Brown County Historical Society Will Hold its 91st Annual Meeting The program Will Explore Historical Markers in Brown County

The Brown County Historical Society will hold its 91st Annual Meeting on Tuesday, November 9, 2021 at the Best Western Convention Center in New Ulm, MN. Socializing begins at 6:00pm, followed by a dessert buffet with a fresh fruit option at 6:30pm. The business meeting will begin at 7:00pm; the program will follow.

Program presenter, Kathleen L. Backer, BCHS Executive Director, will present: “Brown County History Memorialized: The BCHS Historic Marker Program”. The marker program memorializes landmarks like Lake Hanska and the Waraju Distillery; towns like Comfrey, Evan and Golden Gate; people like Chief Sleepy Eyes and events like the 1862 Leavenworth Rescue Expedition. Backer will review the history related to markers erected by the BCHS.

The BCHS has a long-standing marker program starting with the erection of the Brown County Territorial Marker on the Courthouse lawn in 1949 to its most recent marker dedicated in 2019 for the ghost town of Dotson. The marker program reflects the BCHS commitment to reach out to all areas of the county and recognize the historical landmarks, people and events that reflect the rich history of Brown County.

The rich history of Brown County is commemorated in over 120 markers placed throughout the county; 25 were erected by the BCHS. At the dedication of a historic marker, Russel Fridley, director of the state historical society, is quoted in the New Ulm Review, October 6, 1965, “History is not only written in books and letters, but is also written in the land and buildings. When the buildings disappear, the best way to commemorate the site is with a marker such as this one.”

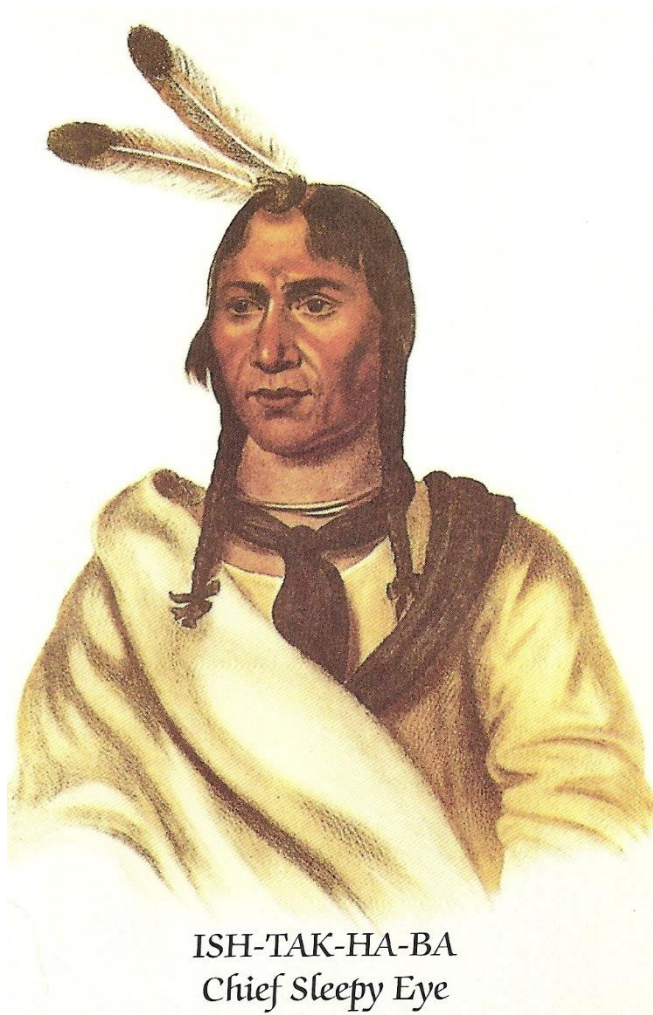

Marking Time, a book published by the BCHS, is a guide to over 120 historical markers placed in Brown County. The book may be purchased in the BCHS Museum Store and will be available at the annual meeting.

This event is open to the public. Reservations are required @ $15.00 per person; reservations are due November 5. For more information, call 507-233-2621 or email: education@browncountyhistorymn.org
