HOW DOES THE CHAMBER OPERATE?

General Board of Directors

They are the policy-making body of the Springfield Area Chamber of Commerce. Our members represent the business and professional leadership of the community. Board members can serve up to two 3-year terms.

They spear-head a Golf Tournament to assist in project funding. They organize the membership drive each December that funds the work of the Chamber. They set the dues structure, choose the Spirit of Springfield Award/Business Of The Year recipients and host the Annual Meeting. The General Board of Directors meetings are held monthly

Retail Committee

Consists of chamber retail business members. They plan retail events and advertising to be presented to the General Board for Approval. They meet on the first Friday of the month at noon at the Community Center.

Office Staff

Denise Gicker - Executive Director

The Chamber Office is located within the Springfield Community Center through the East entrance.

Office hours are Monday-Friday from 9am-1pm.
